It's queer how people will sit up and take notice when one man egins to abuse another.

Now is the time to write autumn poetry for the magazines. Let's see, what does autumn look like, anyway?

James T. O'Bryan, aged 4 years, died at his uome in Huntsville last Friday evening after an operation for appendicitis. Deceased was a son of the late Rederick O'Bryan and was born in Chariton county. He leaves a wife and three children mourn his death.

Last Sunday morning while Miss Audrey Stephens of Moberly was attempting to light a fire in the range the flames suddenly burst out, burning her face and hands and setting fire to her Mo. The little fellows were heavy head of hair. Her brother, temporarily given over to an uncle who was in an adjoining room, and aunt, the aunt being their ran in and extinguished the mother's sister. Mr. Edgar mov flames with a table cloth.

Chickens Coming Home. Investigations into the dynamiting of the Jopliu News-Hearald is opening up a sort of a Webster-Davis-shoot-the - h a plot. From the evidence adduced at the investigation it seems that the News-Herald was getting mighty wobbly on its financial underpinning when the blow-up came, followed immediately by a detailed report of the "dastardly outrage" and the causes that led up to it. The big dailies pictured the News-Herald as a martyr to the cause of civie Star, the Globe-Democrat and the St. Louis Republic estimated the damage done at from $15,000 to $20,000, and What's-the-matfive or six hundred dollars. Oh, two children. civic rightness, what a multitude of scoundrels are parading behind thy cloak!-Lexington

We are informed by the Bee that a stranger fell from paseng er train No. 10, due at Rothville about 10 o'clock Saturday night. The train does not stop at that place and it is supposed that the man was standing on the car platform and was thrown off by the swinging of the car. When ne was picked up it was discovered that his head was badly cu', but his injuries were not serious. He was taken into the depot and Constable Brecount was called up to take the man to Marceline. A. W. Gordon of Moberly is having more than bis share of bad luck. Last week he had a portion of the forefinger on his right hand mashed off while a work in the wholesale feed store, and last Thursday it had suffi ciently recovered for him to go hunting, but soon returned with a portion of his right hand blown off and the entire hand badly acerated.

Chas. Edgar of near Slater received a letter from his two sons

at Ft. Scott, Kas., a few days ago asking him if he was their father.

The senior Edgar answered the letter in person and found his sons whomhe hadnot seen for 30 years. Mr. Edgar lost his wife, who had given birth to two boys, when the Edgars lived in Hickory county, ed from Hickory to Saline county and subsenquently wrote his brother-in-law, who had the two Edgar lads in keeping, that he was thinking of marrying again, and if he did he would come and get his sons. After marrying, Mr Edgar again wrote that he would cometo Hickory county forhischild ren on a certain date, but when he got there he found that his brother in-law and wife and the two boys had left for parts unknown. He never succeeded in locating them untilmanfromGilliam, Salinecounty, met the two Edgar boys at Ft. Scott, Kas., a short time ago and casually asked them if they were righteousness The Kansas City related to the Edgars in Saline county. While assisting in moving a orn in Epypt township Thursday morning, Thomrs D. Auld, one of Carroll county's best citizens, met with a most horrible death. The barn had been moved to its proper place and the men were in the act of letting the barn down when a jackscrew slipped and the barn fell to the ground, catching Mr. Auld under t, instantly crushing the life out of him. Mr. Auld had just recently purchased a $12,000 farm and his prospects seemed full of promise.

How many of our readers can tell us what the stripes on the barber pole aignifies? You see the pole with its stripes and you know there is a barber-shop back of the pole, but here the knowledge of the average person ceases, In the early days the barbers did the bleeding for the community and the surgeons were not as plentiful as now. The first thing thou ht necessary down to the time of George Washington's death, was that any patient should be bled. Tap him, and take a few ounces of blood from him, no matter how weak he might be. When Washington was at the last gasp, the fools bled him. Well, the stripes on a barber pole mean the red ribbon badages that barbers bound over the wounds caused by bleeding people. That's all. When they got through with a plethoric man, of full habit, and had tapped him like a hard maple tree in February, he was patched up and bandaged until his arms, legs and trunk looked like a much-garter-
